Memories of Christmas past

Christmas in Haliburton County hasn't always been what it is today. In fact, you don't have to back many years to find a time when the airwaves weren't clogged in December with American pop singers belting out individual renditions of Jingle Bell Rock. And it wasn't that long ago that children round about this time of year didn't start to dream of mechanical toy heroes manufactured specifically for wiping out toy villains (batteries not included).

It's a curious thing, but talk to any oldster and you'll find that the further back you go the colder the winters get and the snowier the Christmases.

To find out what Christmas was really like before television, before the bomb and before the world was contaminated with radio active subatomic particles, The Times went to the Hyland Crest Senior Citizen's home and spoke to some of the residents.

Lilly Hogg will be 91 in a few weeks. She was born on a farm near the Scotch Line Road and lived there until she was 15, when she moved out to the Bobcaygeon Road.

"Santa Claus was always good to us," she remembers, "we always got excited as Christmas Eve approached - though of course we found out who Santa was long before we let on.

"By today's standards we never got that much - a few candies, maybe some toy, or something special, but then we never really wanted that much anyway. Just something new and different. I just remember that I always took what ever I got, and I was always tickled to pieces to get anything.

"We never had a Christmas tree until my brothers were old enough to go out and cut one down. But I don't think that ever made us unhappy."

Mary McKelvey is 66. She and Lilly have been neighbours all Mary's life.

"One of the things I remember most about those early Christmases is fetching the turkey. We used to grow all our own and in the winter they'd roost in the pine trees near our barn. Well, shortly before Christmas Eve my brothers and I would go and climb one of those trees to bring a turkey down. You'd grab the beast and then pass it down to someone else who'd put it in a sack and then we'd drag it home.

"I can remember one Christmas - my uncle Henry Johnston was with us - and my brother Charlie, he wanted to see what presents we had. So after mum sent us all to bed, Charlie peeked down through the stove pipe hole. He said, 'well, I bet that's for me.' It was a little black dog.

"We were just small then and we decorated the tree with all kinds of stuff - candles, home made things. The whole family helped.

"After Christmas dinner we'd go off to visit relatives. First we'd go to Uncle Johnny's and then Uncle Sam's, and it just went on. Christmas took quite a while in those days."

Jean Taylor was born in Scotland in 1900 and came to Canada when she was 28.

Lifelong neighbours, Mary McKelvey, left, and Lilly Hogg enjoy a laugh while reminiscing over the many Christmases they have spent in Minden.

This is what she remembers:

"Of course when I was a child in Scotland the big celebration was New Year's instead of Christmas, that was when we got all our gifts.

"We never, as children, got a lot. We never wanted a lot. But we were very happy. I think it had something to do with the fact that we made all our own fun.

"Nowadays it's all different. Children want so much, and I really don't think they appreciate what they get.

"When I was a child we got a few candies in our stockings, and maybe some toy or other. And then we'd play games. It was all great fun."

Pearl Lyle is in her 90th year. Raised at Horseshoe Lake Lodge - her father built it - Pearl was one of 11 children. As she remembers it Christmas was always a time to look forward to.

"One of the best things about Christmas was the sleigh riding. Where we lived there was a great big hill which we'd slide down right onto the lake.

"One year there was so much snow our parents couldn't get out to Minden to do the Christmas shopping. This one particular year we still believed in Santa Claus, so it was a blow for us. All mother had was some fruit and raisins and nuts which she'd bought at the beginning of December.

"So that's what she put in our stockings. But my sister had already feasted on the fruit, and as soon as she discovered more of it in her stocking, she said, 'well if this isn't some more of those darn raisins.

"I'll always remember that - I was about nine at the time.

"Besides my 10 brothers and sisters there were three foster children in the family. Their parents had been killed in a train wreck, so we had taken them up from Toronto to live with us. That meant that around Christmas time the house was often pretty full. One Christmas dinner there were over 32 people sitting at the table - but there was still lots of food left over.

"We never did get to church on Christmas Day. Or any day in winter for that matter. The snow was always too deep. Instead, a preacher - a retired fellow from the old country - used to come around to some of the homes in the area to hold services there. Ours was one of the larger ones so he often came to us. That was about the only church we got in winter.

"Oh yes, we had a lot of snow in those days."

Reeve on the mend

Glamorgan Reeve Bob McCausland is "coming along nicely, thank you."

The Gooderham resident has been moved to a Coronary Care Unit from the Intensive Care Unit at Toronto General Hospital following a second heart transplant operation December 11.

His family is delighted with his progress and, according to his daughter, Robyn, on Sunday, his spirits are high and he is a good patient.

The family will spend Christmas Eve and Christmas Day with Mr. McCausland, taking a little Christmas tree with them to "brighten up his room."

"We are truly amazed at the number of caring people who have called about Dad," Robyn said, "It's nice to know so many people care about him."

Outgoing Haliburton County Warden, Harry Davis, left, congratulates the new Warden of the County, Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey. The ceremonies were held Tuesday, December 16 at the inaugural session of the County Council

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

from your Minden B.I.A. Merchants
Thank you, everyone, for making Minden's Christmas in the Village a wonderful success.

We are pleased to announce the winners of the Christmas decorating competition. First prize winner in the Outdoor Residential class was the Steve Adam home in Highland Gate Estates; second, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weibert's home on North Water Street; third, Ron Buchanan's residence on South Lake Road.

Winners of the Residential Door Decoration competition were: first, Nancy Garbutt, on Scotch Line Road; Maxine Snell, Bobcaygeon Road North; Brian Hamilton, Scotch Line Road.

Winners of the Commercial Outdoor Display were: first, C.H.A.C.E. Place, Main Street; Home Hardware, Main Street; and Minden I.D.A., Main Street.

Winners of the Commercial Indoor Display were: first Gambell's Antiques and Nostalgia, North Water Street; second, the Dominion Hotel, Main Street; and third, L.C.B.O., South Water Street (whose prize was donated to C.H.A.C.E. Place).

Our special thanks to everyone who entered. The village and area looks particularly bright and cheery this Christmas. Also, special thanks to our judges, Gino and Margot Ziorjen, Elizabeth Carrell, Don Nye, Marion Hill and their chauffeur, Gord Samells.

Annual concert a most entertaining experience

The Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Concert Band was one of three performing Thursday evening in the school auditorium.

A large and enthusiastic group of friends, fans and relatives gathered at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School auditorium Thursday evening to enjoy the annual Christmas concert of the school's music department.

Led by music teacher Rick Vaughan, the three bands, Concert, Stage and Grade Nine, entertained the appreciative audience, delighting them with their enthusiasm and expertise.

Two grade ten students, Nicholas Holliday-Rhodes and Dianne Garbutt also performed delightful piano solos.

The evening's entertainment began with the Concert Band playing 'O Canada' which was followed by an excellent selection of pieces demonstrating the skills and talents of the students.

The grade nine band showed definite talent and great enthusiasm and delighted the audience with their diversity, performing selections as different as Handel and the theme from the Young and the Restless. They ended their performance with the well-known and much enjoyed, march from Hogan's Heroes.

The Stage Band's appearance on stage (where else?) was, as usual, the signal for the audience to settle down and enjoy some great sounds.

Looking like a horde of refugees from Miami Vice, the band enjoyed their time on stage, transferring their enthusiasm to the audience. Soloists, Kendall Mintz, on drums, Barry Scully on alto-sax and Chris Bunker on flugelhorn added to the enjoyment of the Stage Band's performance. It was also amusing to note one tiny trombone player who had to stand on a crate.

The concert ended with the Concert Band playing traditional Christmas music. The students and Mr. Vaughan are to be commended on their dedication and enthusiasm.

The members of the various bands are as follows:

It is heartening to see the outpouring of goodwill that generally accompanies this season.

Smiles beam from faces as friendly greetings are exchanged in passing. Concern for our fellow man blossoms like a flower after a summer shower. Extra funds are found for the needy, special efforts are made to ensure that none shall experience want at this time of the year ... at this time of the year.

The greatest gift we could give this Christmas should be presented to ourselves. A gift of compassion and understanding, a gift of caring and concern, not just for the few weeks that surround this glorious festival, but for all days and weeks of the year. Reach out now and help someone in need, but don't forget that need can be just as great, or greater in February and April, August and October.

Share the spirit of Christmas throughout the year.

Good news and bad news

by Arthur Black

Well boys and girls, we have some good news and some bad news for you today. Both categories involve The Muppets—you know, those cuddly, loveable little critters—half human, half carpet slipper, that take over your television set a couple or three times a week? Well, the good news is: The Muppets are being Canadianized.

The bad news is: not much.

It's a result of a deal the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation worked out with Sesame Street, the vehicle that brought the Muppets to TV in the first place. For some time now, the CBC has been buying the Sesame Street Show from the U.S. distributors then dropping up to 23 minutes of each episode. That's because much of the American-produced Sesame Street is heavy on Spanish instruction—understandable, since millions of Americans claim Spanish as their first or second language. Not too many Hispano-Canucks, though. Accordingly, the CBC has been substituting home-grown segments with a Canadian flavour.

So far, so good. But the Canadian portion always had a kind of slap-dash, band-aid feel to them. What was needed, the programmers concluded, was some genuine, North-of-the-49th Canadian type characters cut from the same cloth as Miss Piggy, Kermit the Frog, Bert, Ernie and all those other American cousins.

Well, it took a year and a half but they've done it. Beginning in February, you can look for three brand new Canuck Muppets to join the gang around Oscar's split level garbage can. They are:

- Louis, a bilingual otter,
- Basil, a bear perennially learning French, and...

- Dodi, a feisty, grey-haired bush pilot.

Oh darn...no mad trappers. No crooning Mounties? No buckskinned Indian maidens?

I know. I know...I'm being picky. But it does seem a shame that the first full-blown Muppets to spring from Canadian soil represent two animals and an occupation that most Canadians will never see this side of a National Film Board short.

An otter, a bear and a bush pilot. Once again, Canada perpetuates its image as a nearly endless ocean of virgin pine and spruce, sporadically dotted with pothole lakes suitable for small planes equipped with pontoons.

In the past, Canada's hewers-of-wood, drawers-of-water, wearers-of-earmuffs stereotype was imposed by external forces—usually American. In his book Hollywood's Canada Pierre Berton scrutinized several hundred films made in Hollywood, but "set" in Canada. Almost without exception the films dwelled on yodelling Mounties, lovesick Indian princesses and treacherous half-breeds lurking in the spruce trees. Europeans bought the image too. A few years back in Liberty magazine, a Swiss lawyer said that he and his countrymen saw Canada as:

"Just Toronto and Montreal. For the rest of the country we think of trappers, Eskimos, Mounted Police and hockey players."

Not too many years ago the United States Chamber of Commerce put out a travel booklet which said, among other things: "A Canadian may be a Mounted Policeman, an Eskimo, a French-speaking farmer or Rose Marie—but not necessarily."

Tongue-in-cheek progress of a sort, I suppose, but you have to wonder what conclusions Arnold R. Tourist from Great Neck, Wisconsin would come to after lip-synching his way through a sentence like that.

The thing is, whether we appreciate the way Hollywood producers, Swiss lawyers, or U.S. Chamber of Commerce hacks portray us or not—at least its only their assessment. Not so with Louis the Otter, Basil the Bear and Dodi the gray panther aviatrix—we paid for those suckers.

A corporation spokesman says that CBC bigdome brainstormed for several moths, came up with the concept of Louis/Basil/Dodi, then forked over the blueprints plus a cheque for $15,000 to Henson Associates of New York. After 18 months the American puppeteers delivered the three brand new Muppets—who, by the way, look to me pretty much like any other

Re: What do you think?...about rights for homosexuals (article by Bill Kulas, Dec. 10th issue)

Your title "What do you think?...about rights for homosexuals" could have read "What do you think about rights for left handers, or self-righteous religious fanatics." Regardless of our sexual, religious or racial backgrounds our access to these fundamental rights are supposedly what we in our "free democratic society" have and are striving for.

The rights which you imply as possibly being threatened by special interest groups are, after all, only the rights of people; like me, like yourself. The right to work, eat, live and receive fair and equal treatment as a human is the issue here. To feel that giving rights to homosexuals may in some way threaten us is nonsense. To deny anyone the very justice which we deem necessary to ourselves is, in my opinion, a very short sighted and frightened attitude to take.

Such laws fortify our rights as people in a democratic society and should be applauded as opposed to uncertain hedge sitting.

Peter McGinn,
Minden, Ontario.

Editor:

I am addressing Mr. Kulas' question "What do you think about rights for homosexuals?"

Homosexuality is a moral and a controversial issue, but not a new issue in most societies. Romantic male love in classical Greece was made to serve the highest ideals of the time. On the other hand, the old Jewish Mishnah had no sympathy for the homosexual, and prescribed death by stoning, or by being buried in dung and by the victim being forced to ingest a wick to burn the inside of the bowel. From recent news reports in our own country, we wonder if these barbaric practices have ended.

Next, we should consider the cause of homosexuality, and again we find varying views. The Quakers clearly suggest that the homosexual condition is part of the biological or genetic inheritance of particular individuals. Others assert that the homosexual is the product of environmental factors, and that the homosexual is emotionally ill. Others claim that the sexual orientation is explained more by psychiatric than genetic factors. Others conclude that since it is a sickness, it can be cured through counselling. Both

by Pastor Doug Kent,
Minden Fellowship
Baptist Church

Christmas is a time of contrasts. For some it is a time of deep religious reflection upon the focal point of their faith. For others, it is a great excuse to whoop it up and get drunk. For those with money, Christmas is a time of spending big and giving big. For the poor, it may be the simple exchange of smiles. For some it is a gathering time to joyously celebrate and reminisce with friends and family. For others, it is a lonely, depressing time.

These are not the only contrasts we find surrounding Christmas. When we examine closely the Biblical narrative of the birth of Christ, some startling contrasts become apparent. Take Mary for example. She is a teenaged virgin, betrothed to be married, and chosen by God to bear His one and only Son. In Luke 1:28, the angel refers to Mary as one who is "highly favoured." This very special young woman is, in a unique sense, a divinely favoured person. Not only this, but in the same verse, the angel says "The Lord is with you", and in verse thirty he tells Mary "you have found favour with God." Obviously Mary has a lot going for her. Yet this deeply contrasts with her circumstances in chapter two verse seven. Here we see Mary, a person so highly favoured by God, yet for her, there was no room in the inn.

Another contrast centres on Christ Himself. In Luke 1:32 the angel tells Mary that "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High." Jesus is not just another baby born into this world. He is great, and He is uniquely the Son of God. Yet in chapter two verse seven, Mary lays the great Son of God in a manger, a trough from which animals feed.

If Jesus was so great, why wasn't He born in a palace? To understand this, we must first realize that the life of Jesus Christ did not begin when He was born in a stable and laid in a manger nearly two thousand years ago. Christ has lived for all eternity at the right hand of God the Father in heaven.

Jesus left His glorious life in heaven to come to this world for a very good reason. In 2 Corinthians 8:9, we read: "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich." Jesus became poor by giving up His ultimate, heavenly existence with the Father to become a man. He did not lay aside His divinity, but He did lay aside His glory. He took on the form of a man, and the role of a suffering servant. When He died, He died without a single possession. Even the clothes He wore were taken from Him by the soldiers responsible for His execution. But the reason He became so poor was that we might become rich. Now that's a contrast! So how does Jesus fulfill His purpose and make us rich? Well, back in Luke chapter two the angels say, "Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord." Saviour? Saviour from what? Matthew's gospel gives us this answer in the first chapter. Here, Joseph is told to name the baby Jesus, "because He will save His people from their sins." What, me sin? I live a good clean life, I don't sin much. Romans 3:23 tells us that "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God", and in Romans 6:23, "the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." This is the greatest contrast. According to this, our sin earns death, and in direct contrast, God gives eternal life. This is what makes us rich. We don't have to earn it, we don't have to buy it. Eternal life is a gift, and the only reason we have it is because of Christ. In 1 John 5: 11 - 12 we read, "And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life." Eternal life is not possible apart from true belief in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Saviour from our sins.

You know, it doesn't really matter where you fit into the contrasts we see at Christmas, whether we be religious or riotous, rich or poor, popular or lonely. Christ the Saviour was born for all of us. If you do not have the assurance of eternal life in Christ, may this Christmas be a contrast from last.

What do you think...

by Bill Kulas

Year after year we hear the same criticisms of our postal system. Not too long ago Trudeau and the Liberals were at fault for allowing the post office to have such a large deficit and for allowing so many strikes and union unrest. Today with the Conservatives and Mulroney at the helm we are criticizing the price increase in stamps, the continuing deficit and, oh yes, that impregnable hulk of steel, "The Super Mail Box". The box that can be opened with even a gust of wind. Bah! Hum-bug! say our Crown officials, we'll fix them up in a dash.

Recently a controversial working paper recommended the following overhaul of our postal system: A commitment to wipe out Canada Post's $184 million operating deficit over the next two years; minimum standards for mail delivery in major cities by 1987 - two days within the same city, three days within a province, and no more than four days across Canada; independent monitoring to ensure the mail arrives on time and the publication of the results; increased use of the "Super Mail Box" to replace home delivery in new subdivisions, and laneway service to 100,000 rural customers; cutbacks in rural mail delivery by streamlining the routes; increased reliance on the private sector and franchising arrangements for the network of 5,200 rural post offices, with the closing of about 1,700 smaller offices.

The Crown Corporation, and most all tax-paying Canadians will agree, must deal with the deficit. There is no economic sense in continuing to run its business with such a large debt load.

Obviously cost cutting and streamlining measures will have to be taken to reduce the large monetary burden. Hopefully our elected officials will not even consider closing an office such as our Minden Post Office, since it plays such an important role in our community. It might be nice to hear from our M.P. Mr. Bill Scott as to whether or not any of the Post Offices in our riding might be affected in the future in one way or other.

In Minden, we are fortunate to have a group of people who strive to do a great job! Sure they have problems on their hands sometimes, but who's perfect. Possibly, if our Post Office system had more conscientious staff like we do in Minden, I think that they might have a better run postal system. So to Dorothy, Dino, Darlene, Shirley, George and Ed and the rest of our readers, I would like to extend to one and all a very Merry and Joyous Christmas.

"Come let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." (Luke 2:15)

from the chamber

by Shawn Hagerman

One of the great benefits of living in the Highlands is the opportunity to obtain, as close to nature as possible, one's own Christmas tree. No carefully pruned six foot trees for us or, worse, one of those factory made blue and silver horrors!

No, a fresh cut tree is our goal -- raw from Nature with all the gaps and skinny sides! As a by-product, this opportunity has given rise to another annual tradition, known as the Christmas Tree dispute, generally consisting of two parts.

The first part is me trudging thigh-deep through snow pulling a sled with several small children, as we traverse acre upon acre looking for a perfect tree. This tree is never found close to the car no matter how perfect that one may be.

The second part consists of me lodged behind a tree in the corner of our living-room, blinded by pine boughs in both eyes, being told that it needs to be tilted more THIS way.

Alas, traditions die hard! This year our tree went up without a hitch (except for the first two parked out back that didn't make the grade). It is ready and waiting for Santa decked in its tinsel and gold.

As I watched our children finish decorating it last night, I said a silent thanks for all the good things this year has brought. To everyone else may your tree be straight, your traditions grow strong and the year bring you good health and joy.

Muppets, except for their penchant for waving little maple leaf flags from time to time.

Ah well, who knows? Perhaps our trio of fuzzy little frostbacks will turn out to be 1987's smash hit of the educational TV circuit. If so, then five grand per furry noggin is a bargain basement price to pay.

A warning though...the first time I hear Louis, Basil or Dodi warbling "I AM CALLING YOOOOOOO..." -- then, Canadian or not, they are banished from my living room forever.

I mean...it's a matter of cultural sovereignty, eh?

According to the latest statistics published by the Ministry of Agriculture, there are close to 2,000 farms in operation in Victoria - Haliburton comprising over 400,000 acres of farmland.

In recognition of this important sector of our riding and province, the Minister of Agriculture introduced the Ontario Family Farm Interest Rate Reduction in 1985. Last week my colleague, the Honourable Jack Riddell, announced that changes to this program would provide further assistance to our farmers.

The Ontario government will provide relief to farmers suffering from the effects of poor commodity prices and adverse weather conditions under the new OFFIRR Plus program announced at the annual convention of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

This program recognizes the combination of poor commodity prices and record breaking adverse weather conditions which have dealt a crippling blow to many producers in the province. Even established producers need some support to bridge this unusually difficult period caused by factors beyond their control.

OFFIRR Plus is an augmented version of the popular Ontario Family Farm Interest Rate Reduction (OFFIRR) program first introduced in 1985 and later revamped as a three-year program in 1986. OFFIRR provides rebates of up to seven percentage points on farm loan interest rates.

This new program has two parts - one reflecting increased economic hardships on the farm, and another to address the situation facing farmers who suffered crop losses from adverse weather conditions.

OFFIRR Plus increases the amount of debt eligible for interest rate reduction assistance from $260,000 to $360,000. It also provides additional benefits to some farmers by raising the net worth level, at which benefits begin to decrease, from $500,000 to $750,000.

The program provides additional help to participants in the Beginning Farmer Assistance Program (BFAP) by eliminating the reductions in maximum eligible debt for those participating in BFAP.

For producers who suffered a crop loss in excess of 30 per cent, OFFIRR Plus provides special assistance for adverse weather damage. This can reduce interest by an additional eight percentage points on debts equal to the value of crop losses in excess of 30 per cent up to $250,000. This provision is for 1986 only. In most cases, this would reduce interest costs to zero.

The adverse weather provision means an eligible producer can receive up to $20,000 in benefits in addition to the OFFIRR rebate if more than 30 per cent of the crop has been lost.

Taken together with the amendments announced earlier this year, OFFIRR Plus is expected to pay out an additional $96 million to bring the total to $246 million over the next three years. My colleague expects 18,000 farmers to apply for the OFFIRR Plus program.

The weather provision benefits do not affect crop insurance coverage and participation in crop insurance programs is not a factor in determining eligibility or the amount of assistance.

Crop losses will be assessed by a crop insurance adjuster. Producers who are not enrolled in a crop insurance program can call a toll free number to arrange for an adjuster to assess the crop losses.

$10,000 damage caused by fire

At 2:55 on Saturday afternoon the Minden Fire Department put out a blaze in a small out building behind the Dominion Hotel. Damage is estimated at about $10,000.

Fire chief Don Booth described the cause of the fire as suspicious.

The building was unoccupied but did contain some tractor equipment and a motorcycle. It is part of the property of the Dominion Hotel.

"We don't know how it started," Booth said. "That's a very good question." He added that the insurance would probably not cover the cost of the damage.

The building does not contain a stove and is without electricity. Booth said the fire started in the kitchen area, most likely in some rubbish in one of the cupboards.

Though there is no structural damage to the building, firemen had to break windows and some walls to put out the fire.

The police are investigating the cause of the blaze.

the American and Canadian Societies of Psychiatry have deleted homosexuality from their list of psychiatric disorders over ten years ago. Therefore, the scientific community is of little help to us.

Secondly, in further searching for guidance toward a solution of homosexuality, and since I earlier stated that it is a moral issue, it is natural for the Christian community to look to the Church and to the Bible for answers. The Church, very muted until recently, is being forced to take a stand since homosexuals are now seeking ordination in the Church. It is noteworthy that as far as I can find, the four Gospels make no reference to homosexuality. However, Paul as a "good" Jew, understood homosexuality as idolatry, a sign of alienation from God, and refers to homosexuality on at least three occasions: (Cor. 6:9; Tim. 1:10; and Romans 1:26).

With this disagreement among scientists, church and educational leaders, there is little wonder that many prefer to look the other way and say, "Let the gay be gay as long as they don't bother me." Such irresponsible thinking contributes to homosexual demands that they will have the right to adopt children and would have his or her same-sex mate covered by OHIP. As Mr. Kulas points out, this could become a reality.

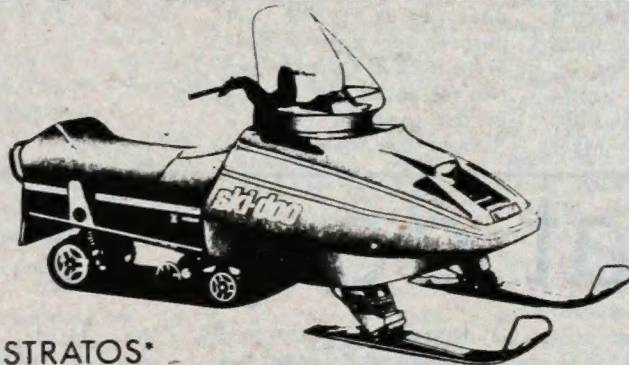

Thus, with such diversity of thinking, we are forced to form personal conclusions for Mr. Kulas and for the guidance of our Members of Parliament. I believe that every individual must be met on his or her own merits without the falsification of the encounter that comes from stereotypes. Homosexuality, as such, can never be an ideal. But, heterosexuality, as such, can never be an ideal either. The only ideals involved in all questions of sexual orientation are the great transcendent values of justice, fidelity, and love, and Mr. Kulas shows that these values are not denied in Ontario. But these values must be extended to the majority of society as well as to the minority, and because of the exploitation of our fellow man, especially of the young, and because the incurable disease of AIDS is increasing at an alarming rate among homosexuals, I cannot believe that our government leaders would even consider encouraging homosexuality by allowing "spouse" status, and by permitting children to be adopted.

Since the biological structure of man and woman is not compatible with homosexuality, the irresponsibility of homosexual acts is not only offensive to Nature, but also are offensive to our Creator. If sodomy and exploitation continues to be tolerated in our society, it will, without doubt, be the destruction of our society.

Redmen win again — 4 - 2

Once again the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School Redmen have proved they can do it. Last Wednesday at a game in Campbellford they beat Campbellford Highschool 4 - 2.

Redman Andrew Burk started off the scoring five minutes into the first period. He was assisted by number 19, Scott Nesbitt.

Exactly five minutes later Burk's team mate Tom MacLeod, assisted by Paul Kuno, knocked Haliburton's second goal in, giving their team a 2 - 0 lead over Campbellford.

Campbellford came back hard for the next few minutes and scored twice in a row, making it a tie game at the end of the first period.

But not for long. Eight minutes into the second period Ted Paish assisted by Gord Woods knocked in the third Redman goal, and then again, four minutes later, another goal for Haliburton was scored by Tran LaRue, assisted by Mike Blake.

The score remained at 4 - 2 for the Redmen until the end of the game.

Eighth win for Minden team

In their eighth win in their eighth game of the season the Minden Monarchs senior novice came away with a 6 - 0 victory over the Fenelon Falls team in Fenelon Falls on Friday night.

Minden had two strong periods scoring 3 goals each in the first and second periods. However, the spirited Fenelon Falls team battled back to keep the third period scoreless. Superb goaltending by J.R. and a great team effort produced the eighth consecutive win for the Senior Novices.

Minden goals were scored by Dennis Woods, Tom Neville, Tod Redgrave and a hat-trick by Marty Dettman.

Christmas stress

by Faith Aggett

Christmas time can be a very stressful time for parents with young children. Traditionally the holiday season is a time for getting together with family and friends. Often the parents feel the pressure for their youngsters to perform as the 'perfect angels'. But children are unpredictable in their behaviour. Add to that the building excitement that has been carrying them through the last two weeks to a peak that is sure to break into an anti-climax sometime about dinner, Christmas day. Parents should realistically look at their expectations.

If it is important to parents to have their children behave in a certain manner to please their hosts or guests, they should prepare their children ahead of time, especially if it is a behaviour contrary to their regular routine. There is nothing wrong with explaining the different expectations of different households.

If it is the rule at Grandma's house that you sit at the table until you have cleared your plate and it is not the practice at home, explain to your child you will give them small portions of things they like, and at Grandma's house, you will respect her way. It is the same with any other social behaviour, or jumping on the furniture, or dumping out the cupboards, etc.

Anticipate the pitfalls ahead of time and go through the routine with the children when you have an attentive moment. Not in the last three minutes as you drive into the driveway when it is likely to go in one ear and out the other.

And what if, despite the best of care, you spend your Christmas with a knotted stomach chasing your child from one activity to another, with no more time than a smile and a shrug for the adult company? Then who are you trying to please?

If it is a different routine from home, don't make excuses for the child's behaviour. Simply state you do things differently at home.

If your child needs your individual attention and you are caught between your desire to socialize with the adults and his need for personal contact, why not choose a toy that you can play together with on the floor in the adult "section" and perhaps you can satisfy both needs. Keep in mind your child's sleep pattern. Tired children are miserable. If it reaches that point and you try to stretch it, all those present are going to feel the effects.

So how do you enjoy a Merry Christmas with young children? Keep your expectations reasonable, prepare the children for different routines and be attuned to their physical and emotional needs.

Have a wonderful holiday season.

CHRISTMAS MIRACLE

CHRISTMAS SNOW WAS SPARKLING LIKE DIAMONDS AND VOICES OF CAROLLERS WERE SINGING SONGS AS SWEET AS ANGLES. TRESS IN THE TOWN SQUARE WERE LIT-UP WITH LIGHTS THAT ATTRACTED PEOPLE COMING OUT OF STORES FROM CHRISTMAS SHOPPING. THE STREETS WERE BUSY AND CHILDREN WERE SO HAPPY AS BUBBLY AS SODA POP. IN HOMES AROUND THE TOWN WERE GLOWING IN FIREPLACES AS EVERYBODY PREPARED FOR THE COMING OF SANTA CLAUS AND THE BIRTHDAY OF CHRIST.

THE ONLY HOME THAT WASN'T BRIGHTLY LIT WAS A
SMALL CABIN AT THE EDGE OF TOWN. INSIDE A LITTLE BOY AND HIS MOTHER SAT IN FRONT OF A TINY WOOD-STOVE SINGING CHRISTMAS CAROLS, AND STRINGING
POPCORN TO PLACE UPON THE SMALL PINE TREE THAT WAS IN A PLACE OF HONOUR IN THE CORNER BESIDE THE WINDOW. NO LIGHTS LIT THE PINE BRANCHES AND NO
STORE BOUGHT CHRISTMAS BALLS OR TINSEL WAS ON IT,
BUT EVERYTHING WAS MADE WITH LOVE AND MUCH ENJOYMENT.

TWO BROWN WRAPPED PACKAGES LAY BENEATH THE TREE, ONE FOR EACH BUT THERE WAS NO SADNESS
BECAUSE THE WRAPPING PAPER WASN'T BRIGHT WITH BOWS.

THE POPCORN WAS FINALLY STRUNG AND PLACED ON THE TREE AND BOTH WERE GETTING READY FOR BED TO DREAM OF FAIRIES AND SUGAR PLUMS AND CHRISTMAS
TURKEY AND TRIMMING THAT WOULD LAST THEM FOR WEEKS BECAUSE OF THE SIZE OF IT.

ALL WAS SILENT WHEN A SOFT KNOCK CAME FROM THE DOOR JUST BARELY HEARD. THE MOTHER ROSE FROM HER WARM BED PRAYING THAT NOTHING WAS WRONG FOR THE SNOW HAD BEEN FALLING HEAVILY. OPENING THE DOOR HER HEART FELT AS BIG AS ALL OUTDOOR AT THE SIGHT BEFORE HER EYES. NEIGHBOURS FROM TOWN
STOOD WITH ARMS FULL OF TOYS AND BRIGHTLY COLOUR-ED GIFTS AND WITH MANY THANKS FOR ALL THE THINGS
SHE HAS DONE OVER THE YEARS.

WITH A QUIET GOOD-NIGHT THEY LEFT AND THE MOTHER PLACED EVERYTHING UNDER THE TREE AND SLIPPED BACK INTO BED.

UPON HEARING SQUEALS OF DELIGHT FROM THE
FRONT ROOM THE MOTHER AROSE AND WATCHED HER SON
PLAYING WITH THE TOYS.

SHE CLOSED HER EYES AND THANKED GOD FOR THE FIRST CHRISTMAS MIRACLE SHE HAD EVER PRAYED FOR THAT HAD EVER COME TRUE.

Cindy Wilson of Just for You Fashions, draws the third prize winning ticket from the Minden Lionesses draw held Saturday at the Valu-mart Plaza. She was assisted by Santa Claus and Lion Maurice Boyd. First prize of $100 worth of Valu-mart groceries went to Maxine Snell of Minden, the second prize of a gingerbread house went to Georgina McGee and the third prizewinner was Jason Gatshore who received a delicious chocolate Yule log.

Your decision

"Only you can stop drinking and driving", is the theme of the new province-wide anti-drinking and driving campaign unveiled today by Attorney General Ian Scott.

"It's not only the drinking driver we are trying to reach, but those who are able to take away somebody's car keys or have the foresight to appoint a designated driver," Mr. Scott said.

Alcohol-related driver fatalities over the last three Christmas periods averaged 14, down from a previous 10-year average of 39 deaths. The public education campaign announced recently is designed to sustain the general public's awareness of the perils of drinking and driving, while bringing the message closer to home.

"Research has shown that while most people are now aware of the dangers of drinking and driving, very few are aware that they are part of the problem and the solution. Our theme "Only you can stop drinking and driving" was developed to have each and every one of us think about it on a personal level," Mr. Scott said.

The campaign launch coincides with the beginning of the three-day "Counter-measures '86" conference, which brings together more than 400 people across Ontario to discuss solutions to the drinking and driving problem.

The campaign includes province-wide television, radio and transit shelter advertisements.

Did you know?...If you are at least 59 and are not yet receiving a CPP retirement pension, a copy of your Contributor Statement will be mailed to your home. This statement will include an estimate of your monthly CPP retirement pension.

If you have not already received one since November 1, 1986, your Contributor statement will arrive before the end of December.

When contacting the Income Security Centre, have the statement handy for reference.

We hope to have a supply of applications at the Haliburton County Information Centre, very shortly.

Please call for direction on this program at 457-2733 or drop into the Centre at the Drag River Municipal Building, Maple Street, Haliburton.

The Elementary Teachers of Haliburton County wish the children and their parents a safe and Merry Christmas.

RUDOLF'S BATTERY PACK RUNS OUT

ON CHRISTMAS EVE A LONG TIME AGO I WAS AT MY GRAMPA'S HOUSE FOR CHRISTMAS AND GRAMPA TOLD ME A STORY ABOUT CHRISTMAS AND RUDOLF'S NOSE. IT WAS DARK CHRISTMAS EVE AND IT WAS JUST ABOUT TIME FOR SANTA CLAUS TO COME THROUGH THE DOOR. SOMETHING WAS DEFINITELY WRONG BECAUSE I WAS WAITING AND HE DIDN'T COME SO I DROVE TO THE AIRPORT TO RENT A ULTRALITE. I FLEW AND I FLEW AROUND LOOKING FOR HIM BUT I COULD NOT SEE BECAUSE IT WAS SO DARK. I HAD AND GET A SPOT LAMP AND A BATTERY PACK. THEN I GOT UP IN THE AIR I COULD SEE THEN I SAW SOMETHING COMING FROM THE NORTH. I THOUGHT IT WAS A PLANE BUT IT WASN'T IT WAS SANTA CLAUS AND 8 LITTLE RAINDERS. HE HEADED STRAIT FOR ME BECAUSE HE SAW I HAD A LIGHT WITH A BATTERY PACK.

I THOUGHT IT WAS A PLANE BECAUSE THERE WAS A RED LIGHT BLINKING OFF AND ON BUT IT WAS RUDOLF'S NOSE, HIS BATTERIES WEREN'T CHARGED. SO I GAVE HIM MY BATTERY PACK AND HE PUT THEM IN RUDOLF'S NOSE. AND HIS NOSE SHOWN BRIGHTER THAN EVER.

HE SAID THANKS AND TOOK OFF SO I LANDED THE RENTED ULTRALITE AND DROVE HOME VERY VERY FAST. BY THE TIME I GOT HOME THE KIDS WERE WAKING UP AND GETTING THERE STOCKINGS.

THE ASKED ME WERE I WAS WHEN I CAME THROUGH THE DOOR WITH A CRASH. AND I SAID I WAS JUST OUT SAVING CHRISTMAS FOR EVERYONE.

Stay home & warm on these cold winter nights.

Ventilation thermostats should be kept clean and maintained regularly

- Ag report -

The staff of the Lindsay Agricultural Office would like to express our best wishes to everyone who receives and reads these weekly agricultural office reports.

Having these reports used by the news media serving the farm people of Victoria and Haliburton Counties provides us with an important means of keeping these farm families informed about agricultural events and programs.

It is now 80 years since the Lindsay Agricultural Office was first established to serve the farm people of Victoria and Haliburton Counties. We look forward to continuing to provide effective extension activities in 1987.

Check those ventilation thermostats

When was the last time you checked your thermostats? Too often we see them covered with dust, white-wash and fly dirt. A dirty coil will dampen the thermostats' sensitivity and could put it out of calibration. Thermostats are the heart of your ventilation system and they should be given respect and properly checked and maintained. The following are some points that will help improve your thermostats' performance.

1. Be sure the thermostats are down below the ceiling with their coils exposed to the air flow. Thermostats must not be in drafts but should monitor average room temperatures.
 2. Clean the coils and keep them clean. All the dust and buildup slows the reaction of the thermostat.
 3. Hang an accurate thermometer beside the thermostat and adjust the thermostat according to the thermometer. Thermostats are notorious for becoming out of calibration. Even check new ones for accuracy.
 4. Check the differential. Note the temperature on the dial when you hear the on and the off click. If the difference between these readings is more than 5 F, replace the thermostat.
- Without regular checks and maintenance your ventilation system will not maintain the accurate and even room temperatures it was designed for.

Corn and soybean reports available

The 1987 reports on the Ontario Hybrid Corn Performance Trials and the Ontario Soybean Variety Trials are now available from the Agricultural Office and various farm supply outlets. These two publications are important tools available to help farmers decide which varieties of these crops to plant in 1987.

The corn report includes the yield index, average % moisture at harvest and the average percentage of broken stalks, on all the varieties recommended for '87. This data is given from '85 plots, along with averages from both '85 and '86 plots.

There are now almost 70 different recommended corn varieties for farmers living in areas rated between 2400 - 2700 Heat Units, which includes Victoria County. Deciding which of these varieties to plant can be a real challenge to each farmer growing corn.

The soybean report includes the average data from official test plots across Ontario in '86, '85 and '84. The data included is actual yield, yield index, days from planting to maturity, plant height and a lodging index as well as heat unit rating. Also given is the % loss to phytophthora root rot.

Ten years ago the new Maple Arrow variety of soybeans became the first variety farmers in Victoria County could rely on to mature. Now there are 17 recommended varieties for areas with 2750 or less heat units.

Any farmer planning to grow corn or soybeans next year will find these reports of real benefit in helping to decide which varieties to grow.

around the county town

by Jeanne Sears Call 286-1538

Recent guest with the Earl Hewitts was former resident Cora Hewitt of Elmvale.

Winners at the Tuesday night Euchres at Gelert Hall were lone hands Earl Schellberg, and others Everett Burk, Bill Wilson, Isabel Saunders, and Bessie Burk. There will be games again at Gelert Hall on December 30th.

Beth and Dave Titus, Carolann and Robbie, of Orillia spent the weekend with the Bob Hughes.

Trevor Clement of Toronto is visiting his grands Pearl and Arnold Cowen and his parents Al and Teresa and baby, Alan, will be here for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan of Elmvale enjoyed a visit with his sisters Mary Cox and Evelyn Gibson.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Elsie Hoskins, Leonard Pearsell and Bob Hamilton whose funerals were since last week.

Tracey Jarrett of Toronto spent several days with Beulah Hewitt and visited many friends in this village.

Winners at last Thursday afternoon's Euchre games at the Anglican Parish Hall were lone hands Gladys Wruth and others Charlotte O'Neill, Joyce Hewitt, Sid Rowe and Joe Dollo. Next games for this group will be January 8. See you then.

Luscious Lucille which was at the IDA Store has a new home with Betty Lonsdale of Kinmount.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Hughes, Amy and Rachael of Mississauga are spending some time at their home in the village.

The Minden and District Lions Club wish to thank everyone concerned for their donations of toys and canned goods for the needy and wish you all the Best of Holiday Season.

Happy to report that Irene Houghton is coming along well after surgery. Also Len Hamilton and Loyne Cox are home from hospital.

The time has come
When gifts are here for almost everyone.
Yet in the papers we have read
Of those who only wish for bread
We earn our living, that we know,
But why so many have to go
To shelters, beg or sleep in sheds.
The time is here to balance out;
Perhaps we don't know what it's all about.
But jobs are what these folks need
So they can hold their heads up with pride.

If Christmas Didn't Come

If Christmas didn't come each year,
How would we celebrate
With holly wreaths and mistletoe
And stockings by the grate?
Why make the pudding, ice the cake,
Or decorate the tree
If Yuletide didn't represent
A time of gaiety?

If Christmas didn't come each year
What of our far-off friends
Who through the years have meant so much,
To whom one always sends
The cheery little greeting cards,
With just a word or two,
To keep alive the sentiments
Of friends both old and new.

And if the joyous Christmas-tide
Should fail to reappear,
Would our goodwill survive the test
Throughout the coming year?
But, since this blessed festival
Is surely on its way,
Oh may it be by every count
A truly happy day!

Minden and District
Lions Club and the Lioness
Club want to wish everyone
a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fir-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where children are hopeful and gay,
Christmas where old men are patient and gray,
Christmas where peace, like a dove in his flight,
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
For the Christ-child who comes is the Master of all;
No palace too great, no cottage too small.

Everyone was pleased with the Christmas Rotary Bingo last Tuesday at the Centre (except for the losers). There was a big crowd and lots of prizes,
turkeys and gifts given out by Santa. Haven't a date for the next one as yet.

On a happier note
Many a verse I have read
Full of good wishes and love

But I'd like you all to hear
Merry Christmas and a
Prosperous New Year
And many thanks to all who give me items.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

kid's korner

by Jean Lacey

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off in the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!

Q: Why did the baker stop making doughnuts?

A: He got tired of the hole business.

Q: When should you put corn in your shoes?

A: When you have pigeon toes.

Q: What happened to the man who discovered electricity?

A: He got a nasty shock.

Q: When is an opera singer not an opera singer?

A: When she's a little hoarse.

Q: Did you take my toothpaste?

A: No, I don't need paste, my teeth aren't loose.

Q: What weighs almost nothing yet you can't hold it?

A: Your breath.

Q: Why does a dog turn around so many times before he sits down?

A: He's a watch dog and he's winding himself up.

Q: What kind of ears does a train have?

A: Engineers.

Q: What is a goose that got out of his pen?

A: A loose goose.

A time for giving

Christmas is a special "time of giving". Within families and among friends, joy is felt through the giving of gifts. However, often our gift giving is simply an act of sharing goods from the market place. Still, it is a tradition we cherish.

Christmas is also a "time of love". The giving of gifts is an experience of love between the giver and the receiver. Christmas is a time when the thought of "love thy neighbour as thyself" can have a particular significance.

Today our neighbour is anyone who comes into our focus, and grabs our attention. Regrettably, many of our neighbours, especially those in the poorer nations of the world, are seen without adequate water, food, shelter, medicine, health, education, and justice. Could we love ourselves if we lacked these bare necessities of life? Could we, in their position, love our Canadian neighbours who, in their view, have so much to share? In a sense to love our neighbour is, therefore, to follow the golden rule: "To do unto others as you would have them do unto you".

In Haliburton County we have the Help A Village Effort (H.A.V.E.) Committee. Through fund-raising events, such as the Walk For Water and Haliburton Artists' Variety Evening, private contributors, and matching grants from the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), H.A.V.E. has already provided 28 drilled wells in 25 villages of India, a gravity flow water pipe line in the Himalayas to 3 settlements, and a number of small compassionate projects. Currently, we are needing $15,000 to complete a $60,500 fund for a Rural Community Health Centre in the Koraput District of Orissa State. This Centre is urgently in need of an Ambulance Jeep, an enlarged base Centre, trained nurses, paramedics, community workers, medicines, a water well, etc.

As you plan your Christmas shopping, please consider a gift for your desperately needy neighbours in the remote tribal villages of India. Since the H.A.V.E. Committee consists entirely of volunteers, 100% of your gift will go directly into this rural project. (An Official receipt will be supplied for Income Tax purposes). By special arrangements, the value of all contributions will be matched, dollar for dollar, by CIDA.

Thank you for taking time to read and consider our appeal. May your spirit glow this Christmas!

Donations should be sent to: H.A.V.E. Committee, c/o Mr. John Stouffer, Treasurer, Box 541, Haliburton, Ont. K0M 1S0.

Romance, scandal, money, guarantee book sales

by Joel Levis,
County Librarian

It is said that there are three things that make news and will also guarantee the sale of a book. And if you never watched Front Page Challenge and Gordon Sinclair, they are romance, scandal and money.

Work the Royal Family into it and you have to be on the way to the bank! So picture the most scandalous love affair of the century involving the heir to the throne - Edward VIII - and that gay, fun-loving American divorced person, Wallis Warfield Simpson and you've got it all.

Everyone knows that the Duke was smitten with Mrs. Simpson and all must know about how they were supposed to have carried on but in this recent addition to the Haliburton County Public Library that was written by Michael Bloch called Wallis and Edward: Letters 1931 - 1937 you'll learn about their goings on from those that knew it the best: the participants!

The title gives much of it away because this is an opportunity to learn more about these fascinating people through their actual letters to one another from the first time that they socially met to their marriage in 1937.

They also establish a picture of life in London between the wars amongst the monied folk and that wished they had money or even tried to give the pretense of having money.

A portrait of elegant age and two of the people that lived through it.

Available through your local branch of the Haliburton County Public Library. See how big we really are!

Above the Crowd!

COUNTY OF HALIBURTON ROADS DEPARTMENT SNOW REMOVAL

The Highway Traffic Act RSO 1980, C198-S147, Revised 1982 states "No person shall park or stand a vehicle on a highway to interfere with the clearing of snow". A constable may have the vehicle removed from the roadway and stored at the owner's expense.

Section 157 states "No person shall deposit snow or ice on a roadway without permission in writing from the road authority responsible for maintenance of the road". The penalty on conviction is a fine of not more than $50.00.

The co-operation of all motorists in these matters would be appreciated for efficient winter maintenance of County Roads and the safety of others.
